

Director Of Human Resources

Oversee and manage recruiting, hiring, termination, performance management, employee relations, compensation, benefits, payroll, organizational development, policy development and enforcement as well as regulatory compliance.

- Minimum of a bachelor's degree in human resources, business, or closely related field.
- Minimum of seven (7) years of management level experience administering human resources, personnel, organizational development, and/or benefit programs.
- Prefer human resources and/or benefit certification, such as SHRM.
- Experience in public transportation helpful.
- Prefer experience in managing union environments and contract negotiation.
- Required to maintain a valid PA driver's license.
- Pay Scale: $70,000-$80,000

It is the policy of the Luzerne County Transportation Authority to practice equal opportunity with respect to all aspects of its employment practices. LCTA is an ADA and EEO employer. Persons representing all aspects of diversity are encouraged to apply.

NEWSPAPER, PPTA AND OTHER ADVERTISEMENTS